DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

Species A. having access to real-time quote server and trading system for conducting individual participant transactions (claims 1, 2, 3, 4, 6, 8, 9, 13, 17, method claim 20)

Species B. having a rule system for processing transactions in accordance with transaction rules. (claims 1, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, 18, 21, 24, 25, 27, 29, 30, 31) . If this species is selected further selection to one of the following species is also required.

Species B1: having access to real-time quotes and trading system for conducting individual participant transactions (claims 22-23)

Species B2: journaling system (claims 26, 33)

Species B3: modeling function (claim 28, 32)

Species C. journaling system (claims 1, 4, 6, 7, 8, 9)

Species D. modeling function (1, 4, 6, 8, 9, 10, 16). If this species is selected further selection to one of the following species is also required.

Species D1: having a transmission system for transmitting the participant information from the nonvolatile database of the administration system to the finance system and transaction information from the finance system to the administration system (per claim 11) or

Species D1: administration system having an update system (per claim 12)

Species E. having a transmission system for transmitting the participant information from the nonvolatile database of the administration system to the finance system and transaction information from the finance system to the administration system (this species, unlike does not include a modeling function) (claim 14)

Species F. having access to real-time quotes and trading system for conducting real-time individual participant transactions (claim 15).

Species G. A system that comprises rule system, journaling system, and a modeling system in one embodiment. (claim 19).

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Art Unit: 3624

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
